David O. Page, Partner

David Page is a Partner with DC Capital Partners. Mr. Page has over 15 years of C-level experience in the Defense and Government Services markets and has led three organizations from their startup stages through multiple acquisitions. Mr. Page possesses substantial experience in sourcing, evaluating and integrating targets and has demonstrated success driving results through strategy alignment, cultural change, effective communication strategies and robust Talent Management programs.

Mr. Page serves as Chairman of The Swift Group; a defense contractor specializing in providing SecDevOps, Data Science and Cyber solutions to the US Intelligence and Special Operations Communities.

Mr. Page formerly partnered with DC Capital Partners to form SC3, LLC and served as the Company's CEO from its inception in 2008 until its sale in 2017. SC3 was a leading provider of high-end mission support, consulting, and technology solutions to the federal government in defense, intelligence, and civil markets. During his tenure as CEO, Mr. Page was responsible for overseeing the company's operations and growth from a two-person startup company to over $280M in revenue and over 600 employees at the time of sale.

Prior to founding SC3, Mr. Page served as CFO and COO of BDS Corporation from 2003 until its sale to Athena Innovative Solutions in 2006. Subsequently, Mr. Page served as Executive Vice President, overseeing the organizations intelligence division until its sale to CACI in late 2007.

Mr. Page received an MS in Accountancy from the University of Virginia and holds a BA degree with a major in Management Information Systems from Southern Methodist University.
